

Vendor Factsheet for Vienna Choral Society's Celtic Arts Festival 2012

What is it?

The Celtic Arts Festival is an afternoon of Celtic music, dance, and culture.

In addition to our own 75-voice choir, the afternoon will feature rotating performances by the following:

- TINSMITH - a folk band fusing traditional music with modern influences
- VES JAMMERS - Auditioned ensemble of Vienna Elementary School's students (3rd – 6th grade)
- RICH FOLLETT - singer, songwriter, poet and minstrel
- THE IRISH BREAKFAST BAND - 20+ member traditional Ceili band and dancers from the DC area
- KATHERINE HUGHES - a traditional celtic dancer
- JOHN AND WILLIAM HUGHES - father and son bagpipers
- EAMMON CAROLAN - Irish fiddle

The festival will be an open house atmosphere. For the public, one ticket buys admittance to the whole afternoon.

When and where is it?

St. Patrick's Day 2012!

Saturday, March 17 / 1:00 – 5:00 pm / Vienna Elementary School / 128 Center Street South / Vienna, Virginia

How much is it for vendors?

You pay $50 for your booth.

What will be provided?

We will provide a folding table and two chairs.

What do I need to bring?

CELTIC ARTS FESTIVAL

Whatever else – within reason – that you need to make your booth a success. What does “within reason” mean? That is a question for Rebecca Takemoto (see end).

When should I show up?

You are welcome to arrive as early as 11 am. Definitely plan to be here no later than 12:30 pm. We want you all set up and ready to go by the time doors open at 1 pm.

When can I leave?

At 5:15 pm.

What's in it for me?

- 1) You keep all proceeds of any sales you make.
- 2) You get to be part of our biggest event ever – which is important for you because in the last year alone:
 - Our season opener this year was nearly Standing-Room-Only.
 - Our box office at Christmas was our biggest ever
 - Advertising is up by 73%
 - Choir membership is up by 19%
 - Concert sales are up by 27%
